About Face

9/27/24 - 11/2/24

With 43 muscles the human face is capable of over 10,000 expressions. Let's face it- that means the possibilities are practically endless- and that's just in the human species. It's time to start making faces at us in all their forms!

The Same As Yesterday

11/12/24 - 1/10/25

Our todays are rooted in our yesterdays. What can you take from your yesterdays as you look into the future? Whether your work is motivated by the every day and ordinary, repetitions, or just the joy of your trajectory, there's something to be said for finding inspiration in routine.

Bucket List

1/17/25 - 2/28/25

This exhibit is all about looking forward. What have you always wanted to experience, what goals and challenges are you looking to tackle? Our philosophy? Don't kick the bucket until it's empty, and let's fill those buckets together!

Happy Little Trees

3/7/25 - 4/26/25

Let's celebrate everything to do with trees just in time for Arbor Day! Happy Little Trees was coined by legendary artist Bob Ross, who passed away 30 years ago. Let's celebrate his legacy of sharing the love of art and nature!

Pet Projects

5/2/25 - 6/21/25

What takes up all of your devotion? Do you have animal companions that mean the world to you? What causes take your time and talents? We'd love to see anything that you hold close to your heart!

Metamorphosis

Change is the watchword of the season with dropping temperatures and the colorful transformation of the mountains. Kafka published “Metamorphosis” 100 years ago and changed the landscape of literature forever. What changes do you fear, face, or anticipate?

Reflections

11/7/25 - 1/10/26

The end of the year is a great time to reflect, so hold up your mirrors, check out the geese in the pond, or look through the shop windows. Feel free to move beyond the physical and play with inner reflections, patterns, and light. There are so many different ways to reflect!

Pride and Prejudice: Author Jane Austen was born 250 years ago, and was a masterful commentator on the society of her time. Take on the subjects of pride, prejudice, and the hot button issues of the present through your art.

On the Move: This is no time to stop and smell the roses! Ready? Set? Go! What moves you and what moves around you? Did you know even a cloud averages 30-40 MPH on its journey across the sky?

Grey Matters: For this show we want to see what’s made in the shade. Let’s desaturate and explore the world of lights, darks, and the many shades in between!

In Living Color: We know just what a colorful bunch artists are, and for this exhibit we want you to pull out all the stops and saturate us with the colors of your world. What hues show up in the sights, sounds, feelings that surround you!

Land of Enchantment: New Mexico has long been a haven and hub for artists to discover inspiration. What makes the forgotten state of the lower 48 so special and what do YOU love about New Mexico?

Come Fly With Me: Is it a bird? Is it a plane? It’s —! We want to see anything that floats, flits, soars, or glides. Plan ahead, or maybe this is the perfect show to...WING it!
